Introduction

2. Under C 18.2.5 of the IJRU Constitution, IJRU herby adopts the Youth Development Commission (here forth referred to as the "Commission"). The following Commission Charter outlines the Commissions role, responsibilities, composition, operations and authorities.

Composition

3. The Commission will comprise of the committee chair(s) and a minimum of 5 additional members from at least 3 (three) continental regions appointed by IJRU President and approved by IJRU BOD. The Board may remove any member from the committee at any time if there is reason to believe the individual has breached the code of ethics as laid out by IJRU, the IOC, WADA and or this charter in part or in whole.

Role

4. Subject to the provisions of the IJRU Constitution – and therefore aligned with the core values of: Diversity, Inclusion, Innovation and Excellence – the principal roles and functions of the Commission are to:

- 4.1. Develop an enduring global youth strategy that safely encourages development, participation and inclusion in Jump Rope/Rope Skipping commencing from grassroots initiatives and youth competition and bridging into open competition.
- 4.2. Develop and implement a pathway for youth to be part of our sport.
- 4.3. Develop a comprehensive pathway for youth in 12-15 age category for international completion.
- 4.4. Develop, implement and evaluate IJRU's youth (Age 15 and under) participation strategy.

Responsibilities

- 5. The Commission will be responsible for the following:
  - 5.1. Developing a global youth development strategy which will inform IJRU's approach to youth development in the period 2020-2024, in line with the IJRU Strategic Plan.
  - 5.2. Developing an implementation strategy, in consultation with NGBs, for National Federation implementation.
  - 5.3. Develop a communication strategy to highlight potential National Federation benefits for implementation of this strategy.
  - 5.4. Create evaluation measures for youth participation in IJRU events, IJRU sanctioned events and other youth programs such as;
    - 5.4.1. Grassroots/community-based programs
    - 5.4.2. Recreational sports program integration
    - 5.4.3. Interschool based programs (International School Federation ISF)
    - 5.4.4. Development activities for national/international pathways
    - 5.4.5. Youth Olympic Games
  - 5.5. Provide recommendations (technical and non-technical) for IJRU youth events/ IJRU sanctioned youth events to IJRU Technical Committee.
  - 5.6. Communicating youth development status reporting to IJRU BOD and to larger global community
- 6. The Chair will be responsible for coordinating activities and reporting back to the BOD as necessary. The Chair will raise a report outlining (as a minimum) the following items at least every 180 days;
  - 6.1. Checklist for Committee/Commission/Council
  - 6.2. Update Charter document for BOD approval
  - 6.3. Development of financial budget (one year, two years, five years)
  - 6.4. Development of required resources (non-financial terms)
  - 6.5. Membership considerations; expiry of members, membership terms, rotations, elections (if necessary), replacements in accordance with IJRU Constitution

- 6.6. Alignment to Constitution; noting any variation required to either Charter or IJRU Constitution.
- 6.7. Governance considerations for control, authority, alignment, etc.
- 6.8. Documents that need review on a regular basis
- 6.9. Approval of items that need to be approved or submitted to General Assembly/BOD decision
- 6.10. Review of deliverables against the IJRU Strategic Plan (ie ensure the Committee/Commission/Council is accountable for any deliverable against the Strategic Plan)

Operations

- 7. The commission will meet at least 3 (three) times a year. Additional meetings may be held when the Chair(s) deem it advisable. Minutes are to be taken during all proceedings and will be reported at subsequent IJRU Board meetings to maintain maximal transparency. Sub commissions will be furnished with copies of minutes and any matter of unanimous consent.
- 8. The Commission will be governed by the rules regarding meetings as set forth in the IJRU Constitution in addition to the following:
  - 8.1. At least ten (10) days written notice shall be given for all regular meetings of the Committee. Urgent meetings, as so deemed by the chair(s), may be called to order with 72-hour notice. Any meeting cancellation must be waived in writing before, during or after such meeting.
  - 8.2. Meetings may be held in person, by teleconference or similar communication method that allows all meeting attendees to participate.
  - 8.3. A quorum must be present at a meeting in order to transact official business. An affirmative vote of a majority of the members in attendance shall be sufficient to authorize action on behalf of the committee. A quorum is reached when at least three member countries and at least two continents are present.
  - 8.4. Commission action may be taken without a meeting by unanimous consent.
  - 8.5. The commission is authorized and empowered to adopt its own rules of procedure not inconsistent with;
    - 8.5.1. any provision hereof,
    - 8.5.2. any provision of the IJRU Constitution

Authority

8.6. The committee/commission/council will abide by and enforce the IJRU constitution. If any IJRU member is found to act in conflict with IJRU rules and/ or policies this commission has the authority to recommend suspension of individual(s) from the organization for a period of time. The nature and duration of the suspension will be determined on a case-by-case basis by the BOD.

- 8.7. Any communications between the Committee/Commission/Council and legal counsel in the course of obtaining legal advice will be considered privileged communications of IJRU, and the Committee/Commission/Council will take all necessary steps to preserve the privileged nature of those communications.
- 8.8. Creation of sub-Committee/Commission/Council groups is at the discretion of the chair(s). The IJRU Board President must approve sub chairs and or ad hoc committee chairs. The Committee/Commission/Council may delegate authority to one or more designated members of the commission, subject to BOD approval.
- 8.9. The Committee/Commission/Council shall have the duties specified herein and shall have the resources and authority necessary to discharge its duties and responsibilities. The Committee/Commission/Council will have authority to retain and terminate experts and consultants, as it deems appropriate, including the ability to approve the firms' fees subject to final approval by the BOD.
- 8.10. This Committee/Commission/Council may be discontinued only at the IJRU BOD discretion.
